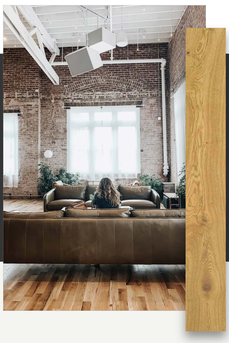
WHY CASK®

Hand crafted flooring, designer-curated colors & the highest quality materials—delivered.



INSPIRED

Lorum Ipsum Do

Cask Collection is made from logs sourced from the forests of France that have been managed for centuries to provide the best quality European Oak. These heavily constructed, consistently long-length floors have the same sanding surface as solid wood floors and will last for generations to come. Featuring a durable Urethane finish, Cask Collection offers beauty without compromise, with a range of gorgeous colors created through smoking and advanced "reactive" stain technologies.

WHY ENGINEERED HARDWOOD

Engineered hardwood is different than a hardwood laminate because the surface is made of real wood. While laminate has a core of high density fiberboard, its surface is basically a picture of wood (or any other material, for that matter). Laminate is less expensive than engineered and solid hardwood, but has a different look and feel due to its make up.
